Undo Back Office Export

If a previous export file needs to be retransmitted to the home office for any reason, the Hub / Transfers / Export / Undo Back Office Export function unmarks the entries involved in a particular transmission. This function requires a password from SSI Support but allows the items in the transfer file to be unmarked so the transfer may then be re-created.