Batch Settlements in Agvance

Batch Settlements allow printing of checks and settlement documents from a batch. This tool has been designed to enable the settling of all open deferred payment and installment sale contracts that are currently open. This video will provide an example of a batch settlements and show how it can be created.